

(Congregation of Faith Krang Angkrang Church)

Besides the ministry at Faith church, Rev. Sokha's ministry centres around a few villages outreaches and churches.

Before I arrived, I wasn't asked to preach or teach, but it turned out that I had the privilege of preaching 4 times and conducted one seminar.

(Right, Pastor Kimhak)

I preached twice in the same village church (Bak Deng Village, right) on both Saturdays on 25th January ('Jesus is the Good Shepherd' from John 10:1-18) and on 1st of February ('You need to be born Again' from John 3:1-16).

(Bak Deng Village)

At Bak Deng Village, I got to know Pastor Heing Kimhak who has answered the call to a full-time ministry and is now pastoring the congregation at the village. He is currently studying in a Bible College in Phnom Penh (a school started by Westminster Theological Seminary, USA). I was also asked to conduct a seminar for a few pastors, so I did 'Biblical Counselling,' on Wednesday, 5th February.

I was also given the opportunity to preach at the 9am morning service ('What is the Gospel' from Romans 1:16) and afternoon service at 4:30pm on Sunday, 2nd February ('Living a Life of Worship' from Romans 12:1-2).

Elder Michael Lee from Hope Bible-Presbyterian Church, who was the team leader of the group, also preached twice on Sunday, 26th January, morning and afternoon. He also conducted a seminar on 'Qualification of Elders and Deacons' on Sunday, 5th February and led three Bible studies from the Gospel of according to Luke for Faith church and other village churches.

A brother by the name of Charles Tan from Covenant Evangelical Free Church, Singapore also conducted a seminar to the congregation on 'Christian Parenting' on Wednesday, 29 January.

During the trip, I had plenty of time chatting with Rev. Sun Sokha, I have learned that Rev. Sun Sokha's faith in Christ and his calling is genuine. He really has great love for the Cambodian people and the desire to see them saved. And he is not ashamed to preach Christ and Him crucified to the people.

I urge our church to pray for Rev. Sun Sokha and his family and Pastor Kimhak and his family and for their missionary works in Phnom Penh and the surrounding villages. The needs in Cambodia is great, but the labourers are few. Pray that God will send forth labours into or from within Cambodia. Pray that God will continue to provide for their needs, protect and keep them to be faithful in the preaching of the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the Cambodian people.

Yours humbly, Pastor David Weng

Cambodian Mission Trip Report

Praise the Lord that I had the privilege of visiting the mission work of Rev. Sun Sokha in Phnom Penh, Cambodia from Friday, 24th January to Thursday, 6th February 2020.

In Cambodia, Buddhism is the official religion, however, people have the freedom to practice any faith.

As the result of this freedom, the work of Christian cult groups like Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormons (or Churches of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints) and other cults have also permeated throughout the land. So much so that the Cambodian government has the impression that all Christians are wealthy. Because cult groups like Mormons and JWs have apparently bribed the Cambodian government to gain convenience of access.

Until the middle of 20th Century, Phnom Penh was a prosperous city. It was used to be a busy international trading hub. It was once known as 'The Pearl of Asia'.

Cambodia's political climate is being controlled by the Vietnamese. And its economy seems to be heavily influenced and dominated by the mainland Chinese. The gap between the rich and the poor is vast. The average income of a person per month in Cambodia is around US$250 (Phnom Penh is slightly higher), but the rich can afford to purchase apartments and houses that cost at least half a million to several million US dollars.

Rev. Sun Sokha is the pastor of Faith Krang Angkrang Church, a graduate of Far Eastern Bible College. He is married to another FEBC graduate Sister Lee Nam Soon whom is an old friend to my wife Susan. Rev. Sokha and his wife have two children, a girl named Jamima (14) and a boy named Daniel (13).

Rev. Sun Sokha is an ordained minister who has been pastoring Faith Krang Angkrang Church in Phnom Penh since 2015. Prior to this, he was serving in another province in Cambodia and moved to Phnom Penh around 2014/2015. He came to know Christ as his Lord and Saviour through a Korean Missionary, Rev. Moses Hann years ago in the mid 1990s.

Currently, the church does not have its constitution, but it is technically a Bible-Presbyterian Church operating under the leadership of pastor, elders and deacons and it is reformed in theological persuasion. Since there is no constitution being adopted yet, some gifted people are called to serve as 'unofficial elders and deacons'.
